

Building Successful Marriage & Family

A Blueprint for Single People

Successful Marriage, Family and Home is not built on Love and Sex. Love and sex does not keep marriage together. If you're going to build a strong home, a strong marriage, don't count on love and sex. Love is not the key to marriage, and sex is not the glue.

A Father-led home or family is important to Kingdom of God (it may not be important to other kingdoms out there, for selfish reasons). This is because a family is the smallest component for a thriving society, economy, and secured future. Any society that plays games with families that're father-led, you will know their demise is near!

To build a Successful marriage, you need Knowledge (information) and Understanding (how it works... comprehension), and wisdom (how to put them together), all from the mind of the creator of marriage, the Almighty God.

King Solomon, the wealthiest man that ever lived, told us these 3 most important components for building a Success Marriage, Family and Home.

Proverbs 24:3-5 KJV 3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: 4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. 5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

There's nowhere in this scripture, you see the mention of Love and Sex. Love does not guarantee a successful marriage. Just because someone told you they love you does not make the marriage works. Some of us

The more things change, the more you must depend on things that never change. <https://ntsl.com/discovery/> reading this right now may have had the experience because you're divorced.

So, first seek knowledge and its understanding; and how to put the marriage together... Knowledge (Information), Understanding (How it works... understand the concept... comprehension) and Wisdom (How to put it together... application, you can apply what you don't understand).

AND you will have a house filled with precious treasures.

A CRITICAL ADVICE

I believe that every human being needs to have an attachment to the future. Children are the most natural way for that to happen, but there are others as well but maybe less appealing, such as IVF or Fostering...

Pls recognise that getting married and having a family should be a top priority when a single man and single woman are in their twenties, then your name will be blessed. There are nineteen and twenty-year-olds now who are being indoctrinated with the idea that postponing marriage and family until much later is the best option for a happy life. We hope these words in this coaching eNote pierce their hearts.

Furthermore, while illness and accidents can strike at any time, you would be deliberately bringing a child into the world who will very likely have to deal with aging parents while he or she is young and with no siblings to share the burden. In so many ways our society has turned having children today into a case of, "My need for a baby is the most important one," instead of focusing on the well-being of the new baby. It is all about the parent(s) and not about the child.

Adjusting your money thinking mindset

The five books of Moses brought down from God on Mount Sinai contain far more rules and regulations about financial transactions than they do about any other category of moral teaching.

About 60% of both the Old and New Testament is about money and Biblical economy.

What is more, Bible teaching through the lens of ancient wisdom illustrates how financial transactions allow strangers to please one another... AND this pleases God!

The Yosef (Joseph) Generations Inner Circle MasterMind For Conquers reveals it all, and much more.
