★ Why you Need a Coach ★

A Coach is someone (a neutral and independent voice) outside your business, family, and friendships that you can talk to in an environment where you can hear yourself think, getting all the things out of your mind, see them and do something about them.

A coach is not your friend. They are only after Results for you!

That's why they're very valuable in your growth.

3. Building character strength - spiritual backbone.

Adjusting your money thinking mindset

The five books of Moses brought down from God on Mount Sinai contain far more rules and regulations about financial transactions than they do about any other category of moral teaching.

About 60% of both the Old and New Testament is about money and Biblical economy.

What is more, Bible teaching through the lens of ancient wisdom illustrates how financial transactions allow strangers to please one another... AND this pleases God!

The Yosef (Joseph) Generations Inner Circle MasterMind For Conquers reveals it all, and much more.
